TOUR ANNOUNCEMENT:

LARRY CARLTON TRIO "RE-RECORDED" TOUR HEADS TO EUROPE THIS SPRING

Renowned jazz guitarist, Larry Carlton is to tour in Europe this spring to promote his new greatest hits album, "Re-Recorded." Currently there are nine scheduled stops on the "Re-Recorded Tour," starting on March 26 in Milan, Italy and ending on April 10 in Paris, France.

Larry Carlton is a three-time Grammy award winner guitarist and sixteen-time Grammy nominee with 25 albums to his credit and has performed on over 100 albums that have gone gold or platinum. Carlton's unbelievable artistry has spanned a career of two decades embarking in jazz, blues, country, and rock where he will undoubtedly leave his mark for future generations to come.

Carlton's release of "Re-Recorded" starts a new venture for him as it was released under his own record label, 335 Records. Carlton's decision to release the album he says, "It came from a place of gratitude- for my career and loyal fans. I thought it would be fun to bring new life and spirit into these, now classic songs." Look for more music being released from 335 Records following shortly.

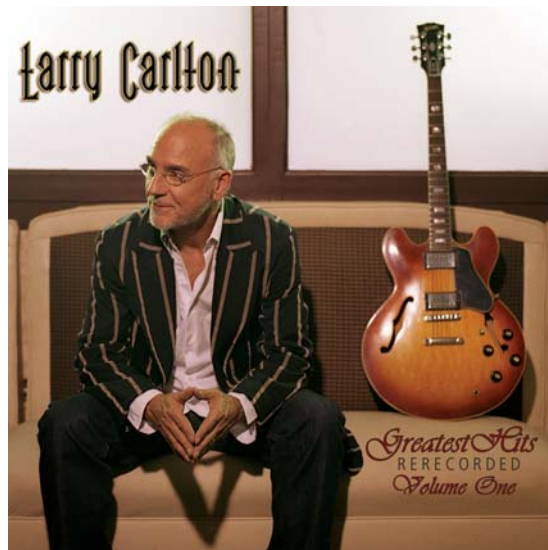

The "Re-Recorded Tour" will provide the fans the chance to hear favorites such as "All in Good Time" and "Hello Tomorrow" and fall in love with them all over again. The "Re-Recorded Tour" provides Carlton with astonishing musicians including Travis Carlton, Larry's son, playing bass and head pounding drums from Toss Panos.
